

Getting Creative Is How Children Learn
Art Is Being Cut From School Programs And Budgets
Patrick Ching's AFTER SCHOOL ART Program ROCKS

Finally, A Program Your Kids will Nag YOU To Go To!

Your children will amaze themselves, their friends, and you, with their newly found skills in art. This program is designed to stretch and flex their creative muscles, fulfilling the universal need for self-expression. It will instill positive speech and thought patterns as a first response. The word “Yes” will be used often. The word “can’t” will not.

This program is sponsored by Patrick Ching’s Naturally Hawaiian Art Center and will be taught by Patrick Ching and an All Star cast of Hawaii’s favorite artists.

“My first goal is to quickly assess each student’s unique learning traits so I can efficiently teach them in a way he or she understands. My students learn really fast because they’re artistic inside already.” Patrick Ching
